

LEGAL.

ION.

1 2 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
12 13 14 15 16 17

[illegible][illegible]

s by Lovejoy, w	98	3	12
	26	3	12
	22	3	12
	22	3	12
cor	26	3	12
av extend'd back	26	3	12
acres	26	3	12
	26	3	12
	26	3	12
adder, s by	26	3	12

[illegible][illegible]

ton av, = by Bost-	26	3	12	lots 3 4 5 6 7 8 9.	WILSON'S ADDITION
by Whitson, = by	26	3	12	SMITH, BAILEY & STONE
e, 6 rods front s	26	3	12	lot 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100 101 102 103 104 105 106 107 108 109 110 111 112 113 114 115 116 117 118 119 120 121 122 123 124 125 126 127 128 129 130 131 132 133 134 135 136 137 138 139 140 141 142 143 144 145 146 147 148 149 150 151 152 153 154 155 156 157 158 159 160 161 162 163 164 165 166 167 168 169 170 171 172 173 174 175 176 177 178 179 180 181 182 183 184 185 186 187 188 189 190 191 192 193 194 195 196 197 198 199 200 201 202 203 204 205 206 207 208 209 210 211 212 213 214 215 216 217 218 219 220 221 222 223 224 225 226 227 228 229 230 231 232 233 234 235 236 237 238 239 240 241 242 243 244 245 246 247 248 249 250 251 252 253 254 255 256 257 258 259 260 261 262 263 264 265 266 267 268 269 270 271 272 273 274 275 276 277 278 279 280 281 282 283 284 285 286 287 288 289 290 291 292 293 294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311 312 313 314 315 316 317 318 319 320 321 322 323 324 325 326 327 328 329 330 331 332 333 334 335 336 337 338 339 340 341 342 343 344 345 346 347 348 349 350 351 352 353 354 355 356 357 358 359 360 361 362 363 364 365 366 367 368 369 370 371 372 373 374 375 376 377 378 379 380 381 382 383 384 385 386 387 388 389 390 391 392 393 394 395 396 397 398 399 400 401 402 403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410 411 412 413 414 415 416 417 418 419 420 421 422 423 424 425 426 427 428 429 430 431 432 433 434 435 436 437 438 439 440 441 442 443 444 445 446 447 448 449 450 451 452 453 454 455 456 457 458 459 460 461 462 463 464 465 466 467 468 469 470 471 472 473 474 475 476 477 478 479 480 481 482 483 484 485 486 487 488 489 490 491 492 493 494 495 496 497 498 499 500 501 502 503 504 505 506 507 508 509 510 511 512 513 514 515 516 517 518 519 520 521 522 523 524 525 526 527 528 529 530 531 532 533 534 535 536 537 538 539 540 541 542 543 544 545 546 547 548 549 550 551 552 553 554 555 556 557 558 559 560 561 562 563 564 565 566 567 568 569 570 571 572 573 574 575 576 577 578 579 580 581 582 583 584 585 586 587 588 589 590 591 592 593 594 595 596 597 598 599 600 601 602 603 604 605 606 607 608 609 610 611 612 613 614 615 616 617 618 619 620 621 622 623 624 625 626 627 628 629 630 631 632 633 634 635 636 637 638 639 640 641 642 643 644 645 646 647 648 649 650 651 652 653 654 655 656 657 658 659 660 661 662 663 664 665 666 667 668 669 670 671 672 673 674 675 676 677 678 679 680 681 682 683 684 685 686 687 688 689 690 691 692 693 694 695 696 697 698 699 700 701 702 703 704 705 706 707 708 709 710 711 712 713 714 715 716 717 718 719 720 721 722 723 724 725 726 727 728 729 730 731 732 733 734 735 736 737 738 739 740 741 742 743 744 745 746 747 748 749 750 751 752 753 754 755 756 757 758 759 760 761 762 763 764 765 766 767 768 769 770 771 772 773 774 775 776 777 778 779 780 781 782 783 784 785 786 787 788 789 790 791 792 793 794 795 796 797 798 799 800 801 802 803 804 805 806 807 808 809 810 811 812 813 814 815 816 817 818 819 820 821 822 823 824 825 826 827 828 829 830 831 832 833 834 835 836 837 838 839 840 841 842 843 844 845 846 847 848 849 850 851 852 853 854 855 856 857 858 859 860 861 862 863 864 865 866 867 868 869 870 871 872 873 874 875 876 877 878 879 880 881 882 883 884 885 886 887 888 889 890 891 892 893 894 895 896 897 898 899 900 901 902 903 904 905 906 907 908 909 910 911 912 913 914 915 916 917 918 919 920 921 922 923 924 925 926 927 928 929 930 931 932 933 934 935 936 937 938 939 940 941 942 943 944 945 946 947 948 949 950 951 952 953 954 955 956 957 958 959 960 961 962 963 964 965 966 967 968 969 970 971 972 973 974 975 976 977 978 979 980 981 982 983 984 985 986 987 988 989 990 991 992 993 994 995 996 997 998 999 1000
by Blomfield, & Crosby.	2

er's add'n being	20	3	12	2: wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	11 67 8
by Lightbody's				wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10
near.				wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10
H O Wilson's by	25	2	12	wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10
by Jackman, a	25	3	12	wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10
ckman.				wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10
by highway, w	20	3	12	wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10
sw'n				wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10
e by May's add.	20	3	12	wh f 1 2	wh f 1 2	37 8 10

by Crosby,	29	32	12	lot w/ lot 55 - un-	55
				numbered lot w/ lot of	54 55
mett, s by high-	29	32	12	13 - unnumbered lot w/	54
				lots 2 & 4	54
	32	32	12	12 of 5	54
Mitmore's s by
l. Battle,	29	32	12	12 of 5	54
of and adj W B
re, s by Dickson,	29	32	12	12 of 5	54
on road, lethy, w s by

[illegible]

by Taylor, why	1	12	12	19 21 2 4 6 8 10 12	7 9 11
				10 11 12 13 15 17	5 13 17
Plot 6 in	1	2	12	19 21 2 4 6 8 10 12	7 9 11
of Milmore.				14 15 16 18 20 22	4 1 7 9 11
A Calkins' land	31	3	13	2 4 6 8 10 12 14 16 18	1 3 5 7
Acres, till on a				10 12 14 16 18 20	1 3 5 7
st. at by Le				10 12 14 16 18 20	1 3 5 7
12 1/2 acs.				13 15 17 19 21	6 13 17
				1 3 5 7 9 11 13 15 17	2 4 6 8
				19 21 2 4 6 8 10 12	7 9 11
				14 16 18 20 22	1 3 5 7
Milmore's add	1	2	12	1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	13 17
L R Stone, and				12 13 14 15 16 17 18	6 12 18
				19 20 21 22	7 13
				1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	12 17
	36	3	12	12 13 14 15 16 17 18	8 12 14
				19 20 21 22	7 13

	2	1	12	15579246810	191340
	2	2	12	24831013579	115401
Cole, s by Whit-	2	2	12	13579246810	124101
man & Motely,	2	2	12	24831013579	115401
	2	2	12	12345678910	141234
Sutcliman, s by	2	2	12	13579246810	191340
Ford,	2	2	12	15579246810	161357
	2	2	12	3457911112	116688
er and Suther-	2	2	12
EDITION.				Lots	BK Lots
				$131011	227
				14519
EDITION.				Dated Janville, May 1st, 1890.	JAMES M. BURGESS, mayfdaw
Lots	Rik

Sheriff's Sale on Foot

STATE OF WISCONSIN
CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY

Chester Baster against John J. Reese,
Earle Woodbury, Edwin J. Brown,
Dora Joy Woodbury, Elizabeth
Dow, James Myers, William Kunz,
Thomas Murphy, Franklin D. Adams,

In pursuance and by virtue of the decree and sale rendered in the above named cause, for sale at public sale above named place, day of January and year above named, I, Sheriff of said county, shall offer said land and [illegible][illegible][illegible]

30 140 141.	10	HEROSENE
2. ADDITION.		CAN be burned; is a coat of Heat
10 141 142.	10	Having a bright, brilliant light.
10 142 143.	10	Having secured the agency of one
10 143 144.	10	doctors, we can at all times give
10 144 145.	10	No. 1 oil, of uniform color, and with
10 145 146.	10	supply of Lamps of all kinds. Also
10 146 147.	10	tinge old lamps.
10 147 148.	10	TALLMAN
10 148 149.	10	Manufact
10 149 150.	10
10 150 151.	10
10 151 152.	10
10 152 153.	10
10 153 154.	10
10 154 155.	10
10 155 156.	10
10 156 157.	10
10 157 158.	10
10 158 159.	10
10 159 160.	10
10 160 161.	10
10 161 162.	10
10 162 163.	10
10 163 164.	10
10 164 165.	10
10 165 166.	10
10 166 167.	10
10 167 168.	10
10 168 169.	10
10 169 170.	10
10 170 171.	10
10 171 172.	10
10 172 173.	10
10 173 174.	10
10 174 175.	10
10 175 176.	10
10 176 177.	10
10 177 178.	10
10 178 179.	10
10 179 180.	10
10 180 181.	10
10 181 182.	10
10 182 183.	10
10 183 184.	10
10 184 185.	10
10 185 186.	10
10 186 187.	10
10 187 188.	10
10 188 189.	10
10 189 190.	10
10 190 191.	10
10 191 192.	10
10 192 193.	10
10 193 194.	10
10 194 195.	10
10 195 196.	10
10 196 197.	10
10 197 198.	10
10 198 199.	10
10 199 200.	10

The Republican committees of Chicago continue their preparations for the National Republican Convention. Those committees, on the morning of the convention, will march in procession to the headquarters of the delegations from the different states, and after all are gathered, to march in full procession to the Wigwam, when that building will be yielded to the possession of the convention.

A Wide Awake Club has been formed. The uniform will consist of a hat similar to those worn by firemen and a glazed cape. Each man will carry a torch and all will be drilled in military style to perform escort duty.

A meeting of returned Californians, to make arrangements for receiving the delegates to the National Republican Convention, is to be held at the Matteson House, this evening. Delawareans, Marylanders, Kentuckians, Virginians, and Missourians, will meet at the same time and place, for the same purpose.

The Michigan Central Railroad Company have a sumptuous car fitted up as an elegant parlor office. This is called their directors' car, and is to be attached to the grand excursion train from Niagara Falls, which is to be run through from Suspension Bridge. The committee having in charge the erection of the Republican Wigwam have decided upon a grand opening on Saturday evening next, (12th inst.) and have invited the following speakers to be present on that occasion:—Hon. Tom. Corwin, Hon. Chas. Sumner, Hon. F. P. Blair, Hon. J. F. Potter, Hon. C. M. Clay, Col. Jas. W. Nye, Col. A. G. Corbin and Frederick Hassarath.

In consequence of the large deficiency in subscriptions, and the determination of the committee to have the building free from incumbrance before the sitting of the convention, they have decided to issue tickets at twenty-five cents each, for admission on that evening.

In consequence of the general desire and great interest manifested on the part of the ladies to attend the sittings of the convention, witness their deliberations, and listen to the numerous distinguished and eloquent speakers who will be present on that occasion, the committee have deemed it advisable to appropriate a large portion of the galleries exclusively for the use of ladies, and have provided seats for from ten to twelve hundred, for their accommodation.

The south shore railroads are making great preparations for the Chicago convention. On Monday next, the 14th inst., a monster special train will leave Buffalo at 6 A. M. over the Buffalo and Erie and Cleveland and Erie railroads, and starting again from Cleveland about 11 A. M., pass over the Cleveland and Toledo and Michigan Southern railroads. Passengers by this train will reach Chicago in sixteen hours from Buffalo and ten hours from Cleveland, being the fastest time ever attempted between those points. Mammoth excursion trains over the New York Central and New York and Erie railroads will connect with this train, large delegations from New York and New England having sent notice of their coming.

Several bands of music and banners will accompany the delegations. Half free tickets will be sold over all the railroads forming the South Shore Line, good for two days after the convention adjourns.

The Candidates Before the Chicago Convention.

The Washington politicians and correspondents are busy at speculation over the probable action of the approaching Republican National Convention. The correspondents, especially, are full of guesses, surmises and speculations. All such givings out must not be received for more than they are worth, "the wish," in almost every case, being "father to the thought."

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:

There are leading delegates to the Chicago convention here from nearly all the states to be represented at that convention. Conferences are numerous among them, but it is idle to speculate much as to results. The friends of Messrs. Bates, Chase, Seward and Cameron are all confident, each of them being backed by his own state. In the event of all these being set aside, parties seem nearly equally divided in their preference for Messrs. McLean and Wade. Some object to the former for two reasons—that he rejected the nomination in 1848 because he was on the bench, which reason is still valid, and because of his being committed to the doctrine of squatter sovereignty.

Speaking of slavery in the territories, he says, "It is a domestic relation, over which the federal government can exercise no control." Gen. Cass advanced this view as "laying down the proper boundary of congressional interposition."

To Mr. Wade we hear of no objection as a compromise candidate.

Col. Fremont is frequently named with much of the old enthusiasm of 1856. His conduct since his defeat is not only declared to have been unexceptionable, but most admirably discreet.

Gov. Banks seems a favorite of the American-republican element. He was their nominee in 1856.

A Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette writes:

For the Chicago nomination, Senator Wade, of your state, is now very often and favorably spoken of. Gov. Chase is said to be really more anxious for Seward's success than his own.

The republicans carry on all their competitions in the most friendly spirit, and the nominee, whoever he may be, will receive a cordial and unanimous support.

John Bell, of Tennessee, nominated for President.

BALTIMORE, May 9. Special dispatches.—The proceedings of the convention have thus far been harmonious. The Houston men desired a ballot to-night. They are more numerous than the supporters of any other candidate. Mr. Bell is second. The contest between them is animated. Mr. McLean will have some votes, but all idea of nominating him or any one else with reference to Chicago is dropped.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

Two-thirds of the New York delegation are for Mr. Houston. They are for Mr. Everett for vice president.

The Pennsylvania delegation is divided between Messrs. Bell and Houston—so is the south generally, Kentucky being unanimous for Houston. It is predicted that he will be nominated at an early stage of the balloting.

Nobody is for Doty; the attempt to bring him forward having utterly failed.

ONLY TWO OF US.

BY MRS. M. E. ROBINSON.
[From the Flag of Our Union.]
"I've made an engagement for you to spend a day out this week," observed Squire Crosby, as his wife was placing dinner upon the table.

"Have you? I'm sorry, for I fear I shall be too busy to fulfill it," she rejoined, in a slight tone of regret.

"Busy about what?" he testily exclaimed the speaker. "I would respectfully inquire for somewhat less than the hundredth time, what you can possibly find to do? It seems to me that you must really suffer for the want of exercise."

"I do, undoubtedly," said Mrs. Crosby, dryly.

"It can't be otherwise," continued the Squire, decidedly. "It is a comparatively idle life for a woman to attend to a few household cares."

"A few household cares!" "Yes, my dear Mrs. Crosby, and the washing put out into the bargain. What a laborious business," Squire Crosby looked very wise, and spoke with a slight degree of irony.

"You talk like one who is unacquainted with his subject; but at the same time I am willing to allow that you know as much about it as the generality of men; and that can't be construed into a compliment to me, by any means."

"Well, it is the fact, a self-evident one, Mrs. Crosby? Haven't I eyes, and can't I see—observe—look about me—comprehend?" demanded the Squire.

"You might, undoubtedly; but whether you do, is another thing," rejoined his wife. "Be that as it may, however, I am satisfied that I can find enough to do to keep me out of idleness."

"When there's only two of us?" "Only two of us," added Mrs. Crosby, quietly. "For it is just as necessary that two should get on together as for one."

"Well, it certainly must be a great undertaking to cook a little food, wash a few dishes, and lay the table three times a day! Why, I could accomplish the whole in less than two hours!"

"Those duties you have named do not comprise the whole of housekeeping, Mr. Crosby."

"Perhaps not; I shouldn't mind throwing in a little dusting and sweeping, once in a while. But it certainly appears laughable to hear a woman complain of the work, when there's only two in the family. I verily believe it's nothing but habit," quoth the Squire, with becoming gravity.

"Suppose you try it for one day," proposed Mrs. Crosby, with like seriousness. "I'll go to the office and do your work, and you can remain at home and do mine."

"It's rather a novel proposition, and I don't at this time recall to mind any celebrated men who did housework. I haven't the least objection to trying it, notwithstanding, and presume it will be the easiest day's work I shall have this year," rejoined the husband.

Both being agreed, the next day was selected for the exchange of employments. A quiet smile was observed to lurk about Mrs. Crosby's mouth, and the Squire evidently thought it a fine joke; one which would afford him a large fund of merriment, and be the means of proving to his wife that housework was nothing more than pleasant amusement.

She, deluded woman, thought her time was fully occupied in keeping a good-sized house tidy, and in devising new means of gratifying the palate of the Squire, who, strange to say, liked good food and abundance of it. He seemed to think that this jumped upon the table ready cooked, and that Mrs. Crosby, or some other person, had but to utter a few magical words, and everything was done. But to hear these trifling duties termed enormous, when there was "only two of them" to look after, seemed a great absurdity to Squire Crosby, and he inwardly resolved to write an article on the subject, and let the sterner sex know how much they were imposed upon.

While reflecting upon the laudable determination, Mrs. Crosby had occupied herself in jotting down a list of the duties which demanded attention the next morning. This she folded, and quietly handed to her husband, requesting him to make out a similar paper, that no mismanagement might ensue.

"The list is no longer than usual," said the lady, smiling at the earnestness with which he surveyed it. "Go through with the same performances every day. It is necessary, for they cannot be omitted. But don't be frightened; you can take your own time. I've added, in a hasty way, a few trifles."

Regarding the utmost indifference to the results, he remarked that he should probably "make quick work of it," and placing the paper in his pocket, returned to the office.

The liege lord of Mrs. Crosby practiced law in a suburban town, and had acquired considerable property by the same. His wife had independence enough to do her own housework, but could not help thinking that she deserved some credit for so doing. She had no particular desire to be praised, "for justice where justice is due," was her motto; and our readers will perhaps coincide with her in the belief that it was rather hard to work busily a whole morning, and then be told "that she had done nothing, comparatively." It was not encouraging, to say the least, and she awaited the experiment of the next day with much interest.

Morning came, and the Squire aroused his wife, and informed her in a significant tone, "that it was quite time to dress and make a fire."

Mrs. Crosby did not wait for a second bidding, but remarked, as she left the chamber, "that she might put herself in readiness to go about breakfast."

Our heroine had taken the preparation the night previous to prepare the kindlings, and in a short time had a brisk fire. She allowed herself to do just what her husband had been in the habit of doing, and no more. He usually left the old coal and cinders for her to sift and clear away, as well as the remnants of wood and shavings to pick up; and she didn't feel inclined to limit his privileges at this time. The dining table stood in the middle of the room, also covered with books, papers, writing materials, and other articles used the evening before. These she did not molest, and with out pulling up the shades, or putting back the chairs, she took a newspaper and began to read.

The Squire had evidently completed his toilet quicker than common, but it was nevertheless, nearly an hour before he made his appearance. It was something novel to see his wife reading before breakfast, and he could not help smiling to witness her perfect sangfroid.

"You've been up a long time, and renewed the fire twice, Mr. Crosby," she remarked, without looking up.

This was the Squire's favorite salutation when his wife happened to take an extra nap of five minutes.

The gentleman made no reply, for he understood what the remark meant without the aid of an interpreter. He proceeded to the business with great alacrity, piling the books and papers upon chairs, and nearly upsetting the inkstand in his haste. After spilling some oil, by carrying a lamp the wrong way, and allowing the kettles to boil over, and minutely before he got ready to take it off, he succeeded in getting the cloth laid, though in rather an awkward manner.

"I think I should relish a piece of beef steak, Mr. Crosby," remarked the lady in the rocking chair.

"Ah, then you shall have it," replied the house-keeper of the day, patting gently, as he bustled himself with napkins, cups, saucers, plates, knives, forks, etc. He tried to recollect how Mrs. Crosby arranged them, but in spite of all his attempts, he couldn't make no application to that lady for advice, however, and she apparently was absorbed in her reading.

Adjoining to the kitchen, the Squire attended to the making of a "delicious cup of coffee," and had a long struggle of beef-steak, which refused to broil to his satisfaction.

When returning to the dining room, he found a long absence, looking seated at the impatient. Mrs. Crosby remarked, consulting her watch, "that he had been absent long enough to make a breakfast."

This observation the Squire remembered to have heard before, but did not make it apparent. At length the coffee and meat were brought in, and all things were pronounced ready by the officiating master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Crosby seated herself and began to carve; the Squire took his place at the head of the table, and proceeded to pour out the coffee.

"The bread, Mr. Crosby," suggested the lady.

"Bless me, I forgot it!" he exclaimed, dropping the coffee-pot, and jumping up so hastily that he came near overturning the table.

The bread was soon produced, out in slices varying in thickness from a wafer to a junk of four inches.

"The butter Mr. Crosby," suggested his companion when he was again fairly seated.

"I declare, when a poor memory I have got!" And setting down the cup which he had taken up for the second time, he started for the missing article. Placing it in triumph beside his wife's plate, he renewed his attempts at coffee pouring, and (this time was successful; but it must be confessed that he eyed the dark looking beverage with some uncertainty as he passed it across the table.

"Muddy coffee again, Mr. Crosby!" abruptly said the lady.

The Squire heaved a word of reply: "Very smoky breakfast, my dear!"

"What have you done to it?" she continued, pushing a large piece of the obnoxious article on one side of her plate. "You must be extremely careless, or such things couldn't happen so often as they do!"

"What a woman this is to remember, to be sure! Anybody would suppose that she had kept a diary of my unlucky observations for a year. Why, she has them all at her tongue's end! I thought the individual addressed, though he didn't see fit to make any immediate rejoinder."

The Squire had but little appetite; his wife remarked the fact, and hoped "that the simple exercise of getting breakfast" had not taken it away, as one person, who should be nameless, was in the habit of asserting.

The gentleman winced, and prepared himself a generous slice of bread and butter, which he proceeded to dispose of as though he had lacked food for weeks.

When the morning meal was concluded, Mrs. Crosby donned her bonnet and shawl, and, remarking that the house would be the dinner, left the house. Our hero was now alone, and could carry on operations without an eye witness; which he observed "was much pleasanter."

"Now we'll consult the list," he added, aloud. "And have things go on in regular order. Here goes: 'Get breakfast, clear table, wash dishes, put closet in order, wipe down shelves, clean knives, cleanse sink, rub silver, black stove, keep fire, attend to door bell, sweep hall, brush stairs, sweep parlor, dining-room and kitchen, dust furniture, trim lamps, do chamber work, wash meat for oven, clean vegetables, stew cranberries, make pudding, and entertain visitors if they should happen to call.'"

"Bless me is that all?" cried our house-keeper. "I call that making a great fuss about a little matter. It sounds larger than it really is. I think I'll clear the table to begin with, as that is put down next."

So at it he went, knocking things hither and thither, at great hazard of their dishonor. As the idea didn't occur to him that he could carry a waiter of articles at one time, he made a great many journeys between the dining room and kitchen, which he was somewhat considerate of.

The shuffling progress rather an awkward affair, and didn't proceed so rapidly as he could have wished. He couldn't wipe the cups handily, the saucers seemed bungling, and the plates would slip back into the water; but after breaking a cut glass tumbler, which he felt certain of matching the next day, (knocking a large piece out of a plate, which he resolved to paste together while dinner was cooking,) and cracking a pot dish of his wife's, while setting up a pile of plates, the matter was brought to a close.

The knife cleaning was another thing altogether; there would be the danger of breakages, and he could "put 'em through quick." But the black spots were deeper set than he imagined, and required the exhibition of more "elbow grease" than he had any idea of. He expended longest with the carving knife, which in consequence of being so awkwardly handled inflicted a deep cut, as a slight token of remembrance. This was a mistake that caused many other mistakes during the day, owing, undoubtedly, to the clumsy bandage which the Squire wrapped about his hand.

It may be well to remark that the afore-said list was laid carefully in a conspicuous position, and frequently referred to. He attended to the silver, and then glanced at the clock. The hands pointed to an hour which admonished him that "time waited for no man," and had no particular sympathy for inexperienced housekeepers.

"What's next in the docket, I wonder," he thought, consulting his memorandum.

"Ah, stove to black! Well, I must admit that the coffee which boiled over hasn't improved its appearance much. I'll look up the brush."

So saying he prepared the polish and sat about the operation a while. The stove was quite hot, and he couldn't work to any purpose. The more liquid he put on the more it would sputter about and fly off with a crackling noise. He thickened the liquid, but it would not adhere to the stove, and he began to think it was bewitched.

At this stage of affairs he happened to recollect that somebody had said milk was the best thing to wet the powder with; so he hastened to the pantry, and pouring out a quantity, applied it to the refractory stove. That didn't mend the matter much, and the smell of burned milk began to be quite disagreeable. The room was filled with the smell of the floor around the stove and color, and the little spots of blackening, and the Squire's eyes were, when a violent ring of the bell resounded through the house, making our hero start as though he had been surprised in some dishonorable act.

He looked towards the door, then at his hands, and finally at a large stain on his shirt bosom, which bore a strong resemblance to blacking.

"I won't go! they may ring all day if they like!" he exclaimed, impatiently, going to the wash basin and trying to bring his hands to their accustomed color; but second ring would not incline to "give it up so."

"Confound that distasteful!" I suppose it's some old man after books, clothes, grease or rags. If he does it again I'll bring a suit against him for assault and battery!" cried our impatient housekeeper, making a few desperate dashes at the dish-cloth, which he mistook for the towel, and hurrying toward the door, which he opened with a trembling hand.

"A good morning, Squire!" said a well-dressed, good looking young lady, who evidently expected to see somebody else appear. "Is Mrs. Crosby in?"

"Yes—I—no, she isn't," he stammered; for truth to tell, the Squire was thinking more of his personal appearance than his wife's absence; besides, he imagined that the young lady looked at him with some curiosity, and this embarrassed him the more.

Now it must be observed that our hero was remarkable for the neatness of his dress, and the stain upon his linen assumed enormous dimensions under the searching glance of his visitor. He dropped his eyes, and forgot the stain in contemplating his sooty hands.

"Excuse the disorder of my dress this morning, Miss Haynes," he added. "I was so unfortunate as to upset the inkstand just as you rang, and you see the effects of the accident."

This, it must be confessed, was rather a departure from the truth, but the Squire couldn't think of any other way to extricate himself from the awkward position, and he was not disposed to confess the exact state of the case to his fair black-eyed friend, who, after making a few common-place remarks, took her leave.

"What an ingenious excuse that was! nobody that a lawyer would have thought of it!" soliloquized our hero, glancing complacently in a mirror pertaining to the bathroom. Imagine his mortification at discerning a black streak across his face, which gave it a most ludicrous aspect. No wonder the young lady looked at him with curiosity, for nothing, probably, but good manners, restrained him from a hearty laugh.

[Concluded to-morrow.]

Important Vote on the Homestead Bill.

In the Senate on the 9th, the homestead bill was taken up and Mr. Grimes moved to extend its provisions to all single persons over twenty-one, as well as heads of families, and advocated his amendment.

Mr. Green opposed the bill as no homestead bill at all.

Mr. Johnson, of Arkansas, defended the present bill as one of compromise and concession, and therefore opposed Mr. Grimes' amendment.

After considerable debate the amendment was rejected. Ayes 27; noes 28.

Mr. Fitch offered an amendment extending the present bounty system to soldiers who have served less than fourteen days. Rejected—ayes 17; noes 35.

Mr. Green moved to table the bill. Rejected—ayes 16; noes 40.

Mr. Wade moved to substitute the House bill. Negatived—ayes 26; noes 31.

Mr. Clark moved to strike out the 11th section of the bill, and insert the following: "The homestead shall be granted to states in which they are situated. Rejected—7 against 45."

Mr. Rice moved to amend the same section by substituting five years for thirty-five. Not carried.

Mr. Clay moved to make it twenty-five years.

Mr. Hammond moved to adjourn. Lost.

Mr. Clay modified his amendment to thirty years, and it was adopted by 27 against 30.

The discussion continued on various amendments, and several motions to adjourn were voted on.

Mr. Fitch offered an amendment extending the operation of the bill to lands not subject to private entry. Adopted.

Mr. Lane moved to postpone the bill to the 1st of June, and have the amendments printed so senators could understand it.

Mr. Wade said there must be an end to all things, and he hoped this bill would be finished to-night.

Several dilatory motions were voted down by the friends of the bill. At 7 o'clock the bill was reported to the senate. Further debate, without action, was had on the bill.

TRAPPERS RETURNING.—On Thursday evening last, four gentlemen, who have spent the trapping season near the sources of the Minnesota and Red rivers, arrived at Henderson, says the Democrat of that place, on the way to their homes near La Crosse, Wisconsin. They report that they have been very successful at trapping, having realized some $1,000 for the furs they took, which they had already disposed of for cash, to some one of the upper Minnesota traders. They also report that the season has been a propitious one for trappers generally, and an unusually heavy crop of furs has been secured throughout the trapping region. During the winter these gentlemen descended the Red river to a considerable distance beyond the Pembina settlements, and crossed thence into the valley of the Saskatchewan, returning through Dakota territory.

A person in Virginia has invented a new method for applying steam to the propulsion of canal boats. The principal feature of the invention is, that the power is applied to two alternating parallel rods, operating horizontally within open submerged chambers. The length of the stroke will be about twenty feet, and the engine is to be constructed so as to apply the power direct from the steam cylinders, dispensing with crank and fly-wheel. The water displaced does not flow to the sides of the canal, and therefore the washing of the banks is avoided.

Mrs. Mary Connor, an inmate of Bellevue hospital, New York city, gave birth to a child on Sunday evening; no attendant being present. On being visited next morning by the physician, the infant was found dead, its nose, upper lip, and half the left foot favoured by the rats. The mother was aware of their presence, but was too much exhausted to drive them off or give much alarm. Several other women, on the eve of accouchment, were in the room, but were not aware of the horrible occurrence. The officers of the hospital are severely censured for their neglect and inattention.

Den, Jones has always been remarkable for his meekness and uniform propriety of conduct. On the occasion of a "militia" muster, the spirit of the day produced an influence on the worthy deacon, that attracted the attention of the pastor as some of his brethren. The pastor expressed his disapproval, and asked the cause. "Why, pastor?" replied the deacon, "you see I've been constantly, in season and out of season, serving the Lord for the last twenty years; and I thought that, just for once, I'd take a day to myself."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

RESOLUTION.—The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned is this day dissolved, by mutual consent. R. L. SCOFFIELD & CO. are hereby notified to collect all debts due said firm, and will pay all claims against the same.

Janesville, May 9th, 1860.

R. L. SCOFFIELD.
JOHN P. PEASE.

The business of the late firm will hereafter be conducted by JANESVILLE, MAY 9th, 1860. R. L. SCOFFIELD & CO.

H. BUCKLEY & CO.'S

GREAT NATIONAL CIRCUS!

After an absence of three years, will exhibit at JANESVILLE, MAY 21ST,
Afternoon & Evening, at 2 & 7 o'clock.

ADMISSION: UNDER 5 YEARS 15 CTS.
ALL BOX SEATS!
For particulars see descriptive bills.
JANESVILLE, MAY 10th, 1860. GEO. S. COLE, Agent.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.

MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WILL respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 12th, 13th and 14th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of MILLINERY GOODS, &c.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers, with many colors, styles and prices. Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses Bonnets, Figs and Lining Hats, all prices. In fact every article which constitutes a Fair and Millinery. A full assortment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I have secured a First Class Millinery in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience of the business in all the various branches, which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness. Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.

JANESVILLE, MAY 9th, 1860. MISS SHEEHAN & CO.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice. Bonnets made to order, over-door, under-door, McKee & Bro's, or any style.

THE ANNUAL Meeting of the members of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of the State of Wisconsin, for the year ending on the 31st of December, 1859, will be held at the Office of the company in Milwaukee, on Monday the 4th day of June next. Polls open from 2 to 4 o'clock P. M.

Milwaukee, May 4th, 1860. JAMES D. BROWN, Secy.

WALL PAPER!

A LARGE large arrival of Wall Paper this day at A. S. BROWN'S. The assortment is large and beautiful, with various styles and at prices that defy competition. Also, large arrivals of Plain Cap, Book Cap, and other Wall Paper, of the most reliable and durable quality. Ladies' Wall, direct from the manufacturers.

Order by the Common Council.

By the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville, Ord.

That the City Treasurer be instructed to make complaint against all persons selling ardent spirits, wine, beer or cider, and keeping billiard tables and bowling alleys, and all persons who are guilty of such offenses, and that he inform the city attorney of every such person, and that he cause a warrant to be issued against them, and that he cause the same to be executed.

Passed May 4th, 1860. JAMES D. BROWN, Mayor.

KEROSENE! KEROSENE!

More Light and Less Expense.

I HAVE just received a supply of the celebrated Hartford Coal Oil!

This oil is manufactured from the best Coal Oil, and is superior to any Kerosene oil in the market, being very light colored and burning with a clear, brilliant and steady flame, making the cheapest and most agreeable light. It is sold at the lowest price, and at the market rates at the PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE, opposite the Lyman House.

HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE CO.,
January 1, 1860.

ASSETS.

Cash on hand and in bank.....	$85,595 11
Cash in hands of Agents, and in transit.....	10,000 00
Cash loaned on call.....	30,000 00
Receivable for loans secured.....	510,000 00

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Thermometrical Table.

Table with 4 columns: DATE, BAROMETER, THERMOMETER, and WEATHER. Rows for May 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31.

An Important Notice.

We are now publishing an important order of the city council in relation to persons selling liquors, or keeping billiard saloons or bowling alleys without a license. We are authorized by the Mayor to state that at a meeting of the council to-morrow evening, a report will be made of all persons so selling or so keeping said places, and that in every case where an application is not made to the council at its meeting to-morrow evening for a license, a prosecution will be commenced Saturday morning.

HALF FARE ON THE M. & M. R. R.—The Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. will issue tickets for Chicago at half fare during the Republican Convention week. Tickets by the way of Milwaukee or Janesville.

Donation Visit.

The friends of Rev. S. S. Etheridge are invited to a Donation Party at the house of J. B. Doe, Esq., on Friday evening next at 8 o'clock.

C. H. CAPRON, Geo. G. WILLIAMS, } Com. J. L. SPAFFORD, }

may9ddt Judge Taney is again very much debilitated, and it is thought he will not again be able to take his seat in the supreme court.

The democrats in congress have issued a call to the Charleston seceders to enter the Baltimore convention.

The southern democratic papers very generally sustain the action of the seceders in the strongest terms.

NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.—The republican state convention of Illinois, which met at Decatur, on Wednesday, nominated Richard L. Yates of Morgan co. for governor, and F. A. Hoffman, of Du Page county, for lieutenant governor. It is believed that the nomination of a candidate for governor in the southern part of the state will add materially to the chances of carrying Illinois for the republican presidential candidate.

DOUGLAS PROSPECTS.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, says:

I have seen a large number of returned delegates from Charleston, who say that they think Douglas will find himself decidedly in the vanguard on the reassembling of the convention on the 18th day of June. They state that twenty-eight men were compelled against their will to vote for him under the rule, and that nearly fifty men were prepared to desert him at the time the adjournment was carried. To block the Douglas game of filling the seats of the seceding delegates with his friends, it is proposed that the seceders shall return, on the ground that the Tennessee platform is pending, which will prove satisfactory to the south if adopted.

The war of the administration against Douglas will be prosecuted to the bitter end, and we may expect to see more exciting scenes in the Baltimore convention than occurred in Charleston. The Constitution of 7th continues the campaign against Douglas, and says: "The arena at Charleston has demonstrated the absolute impotency of foisting any candidate upon the democracy with the aid of the democratic states are opposed, and have shown that these states possess sufficient authority yet in the Union to assert and maintain the great principles of the equal rights of all the states under the constitution, despite of all the means and appliances that can be brought to bear against them, whether from without or within their borders."

One peculiar feature in the Connecticut campaign was the formation of "wide-awake" clubs. These clubs are composed of young men, who, while holding themselves ready for any duty during the day, are organized more particularly for escort and torch-light duty in the evening at meetings and processions. They wear a uniform consisting of a glazed cap and cape to keep the oil from dripping on their clothes, and have officers who are distinguished by the carrying of colored lanterns.

COINCIDENCES.—The Bennington Banner says that John Sherman, in Pownall, Vermont, had born to him, on the day he completed his seventieth year, a son, and he called his name Levi; and on the same day was born unto him a grandson and great-grandson; the parents at the time residing in three different states. All three of the boys are living now.

DEATH OF A TELEGRAPHIC OPERATOR FROM A SHOCK OF LIGHTNING.—The Marietta (O.) Intelligencer, announces the death of George L. Slocumb of that city. He has been in the employ of the Marietta and Cincinnati Railroad as a telegraphic operator, at Big Run, Adams county, a few weeks since, while he was sitting at the instrument in his office, during the prevalence of a heavy storm, the lightning ran in upon the wires and completely stunned him. A few days developed the horrible fact that his limbs were paralyzed and his muscles almost totally deprived of action. The paralysis gradually extended over the body until death ended his affliction.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Those desiring this safest and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state. Thus while duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, Pres't. A. W. KELLOR, Sec'y.

Messrs. Pickley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge, who receives applications for insurance in his home company, will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville. apr13dadv

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, May 10, 1860. Receipts of wheat were considerably larger today than yesterday, and under good milling and shipping demand prices advanced 1/2 cent per bushel. Sales of about 1000 bushels at 1.05 1/2 for milling spring, and 1.02 1/2 for shipping, closing firm at those figures. Receipts of coarse grain very light and demand good at previous quotations. We make up prices as follows: WHEAT—white winter 1.05 1/2; good to choice milling spring at 1.05 1/2; common to fair shipping, 1.02 1/2. BARLEY—good request at 45 cents per 60 lbs. fair to choice. CORN—shelled, per 60 lbs., 42 1/2; ear per 70 lbs. 36 1/2. POTATOES—advanced to 25 cents per bushel. RYE—quintable at 60 1/2 per 60 lbs. None coming forward. POTATOES—quintable at 25 1/2 per bushel for good to choice ones. TIMOTHY SEED—scarce and in demand at 2 1/2 to 2.50 per 40 lbs. BUTTER—plenty at 11 1/2. EGGS—in fair demand at 75 per dozen. HIDE—green, 60 1/2; dry, 50 1/2. FLOUR—spring at 1.00, winter, 95. POULTRY—chickens, 65; turkeys, 75.

Chicago Market.

Wholesale firm and tolerably active, with sales of No. 1 spring at 1 1/2 in store; No. 2 spring 1.05 1/2, 10. Corn steady at 52 1/2 for No. 1. Flour a shade easier. Oats more active with sales at 31 in store. Barley quiet at 71 1/2 for No. 1 on track. Highwines 15 1/2.

1860 New Commission House. 1860

WE have established ourselves in the General Agency and Commission Business in the store on Milwaukee street, recently vacated by Barrows & Lund, and shall at all times keep a first class

Wholesale Commission House!

Our facilities for transacting a business of this kind are unsurpassed, and all matters entrusted to us shall receive our prompt and faithful attention. Among the articles already on consignment we have:

LAND PLASTER!

from Ames & Merriam, Oswego—a celebrated brand, and warranted perfect.

Ohio Cheese!

always on hand. Dealers supplied at the lowest market rates. We are in receipt of HIGGINS' ALCOHOL and PROOF SPIRITS from the popular house of Lawrence, Midway & Co., which we offer at manufacturing rates.

REFER TO

Central Bank of Wis., Janesville, Rock County Bank, Janesville, John P. Hoy & Co., Bankers, Janesville, H. A. Tucker & Co., Chicago, Tucker, Randolph & Carter, Chicago, Wm. M. & F. Ins. Co. Bank, Milwaukee, Johnson & Olmsted, Milwaukee.

WHY NOT IN YOUR CASE!

Before Investing a Dollar in BOOT, SHOE OR GAITER, WHY NOT

Call at the Sign of the Big Boot!

And Examine Our Stock!

WE are in receipt of, and shall continue through the season to receive every style adapted to the wants of this community.

BUYING OF MANUFACTURERS, AND FOR CASH ONLY!

We not only CAN but WILL Sell A Good Article for Less Money!

than can be bought of any other house in this city.

Particular Attention

is called to our CUSTOM DEPARTMENT!

A GOOD ASSORTMENT Always on Hand!

and will Make to Order on Short Notice!

Ladies' and Gents' Wear. PERFECT SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN EVERY CASE.

CYRUS MINER, Janesville, April 24, 1860. apr2ddt

GREAT BARGAINS!

SPRING & SUMMER DRY GOODS. Now is Your Time to Buy!

Harris, Marsh & Co.'s

LATELY FROM THE EAST, HAVE recently purchased the entire stock of Marchandise of J. N. Moore, formerly owned by Moore & Bro., and will operate at the old stand, West Milwaukee street, Exchange block, opposite Big Mill.

The stock consists of:

FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS, of every description; also,

Hats, Caps, Boots & Shoes, CARPETS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, OIL CLOTHS,

Crockery, Glassware, &c., &c.

The stock is nearly all new, and great additions have been made this spring from New York, Boston and Philadelphia markets, bought from the most extensive Importing Houses and Auctioneers in the east, at low figures, to suit the times. Therefore, as this splendid stock has been bought cheap, we can OFFER GREAT INDUCEMENTS TO CUSTOMERS!

We extend an invitation to all the old friends and customers of the house to give us a call, and we flatter ourselves that we have the experience, knowledge and means to build up a wide-spread reputation, and not only keep the old customers of the house, but add more every day.

BENTON'S CIGARS! THE PLACE TO FIND THEM!

New Establishment!

THE undersigned having dissolved the co-partnership existing between himself and W. P. Woodward, has the pleasure of announcing to the citizens of Janesville, the people of Rock county, and the world at large, that he has opened a

NEW ESTABLISHMENT

for the manufacture and sale of

CIGARS, CHEWING AND SMOKING TOBACCO, SNUFF, and tobacco of all kinds, in the frame building on the East End of the Upper Bridge, on recently occupied by P. Lindstrom. In making this announcement he feels that it is unnecessary to flatter in any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

MILWAUKEE STREET!

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any other. The people will know where to go to for all kinds and in all shapes, of any puffing and blowing, as he frequently does by others. He has only to say that

BENTON'S CIGARS!

puff themselves, and as he is now upon his "own hook," he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than any

